NACCC

TRUSTEE ROLE DESCRIPTION

The statutory duties of a Trustee:

Main duty

Under charity law NACCC Trustees have and must accept the ultimate responsibility for directing the affairs of NACCC, and ensuring that it is solvent, well-run and delivering the charitable outcomes for the benefit of the public for which it has been set up. In law trustees of NACCC have three particular duties — care, compliance and prudence — which are set out below following the wording given by the Charity Commission.

Duty of care — Trustees must:

- Use reasonable care and skill in their work as trustees, using their personal skills and experience as needed to ensure that NACCC is well-run and efficient.
- Consider getting external professional advice on all matters where there may be material risk to NACCC, or where the trustees may be in breach of their duties.

Duty of compliance — Trustees must:

- Ensure that NACCC complies with charity law, and with the requirements of the Charity Commission as regulator; in particular ensure that the charity prepares reports on what it has achieved and Annual Returns and accounts as required by law
- Ensure that NACCC does not breach any of the requirements or rules set out in its governing document and that it remains true to the charitable purpose and objects set out there.
- Comply with the requirements of other legislation and other regulators which govern the activities of NACCC.
- Act with integrity, and avoid any personal conflicts of interest or misuse of NACCC funds or assets.

Duty of prudence - Trustees must:

- Ensure that NACCC is and will remain solvent.
- Use NACCC's funds and assets reasonably, and only in furtherance of NACCC's objects.
- Avoid undertaking activities that might place NACCC's endowment, funds, assets or reputation at undue risk.
- Take special care when investing NACCC's funds, or borrowing funds for NACCC to use.

Specific duties of Trustees of NACCC:

Vision, values and strategic direction

- To contribute actively to the board of trustees' role in giving firm strategic direction to NACCC, setting a vision, goals, policy and plans, and targets and key performance indicators
- To ensure that NACCC seeks and considers the views of beneficiaries and stakeholders in setting strategic direction and policy
- To ensure breadth and diversity in the vision, values, policy and strategy of NACCC
- To serve as an ambassador for the charity, promoting understanding and recognition of, and support for, NACCC's vision and values

Performance management

- To monitor and evaluate performance against plans, targets and key performance indicators, and its wider impact on stakeholders
- To appoint the Chief Executive and monitor his/her performance
- To safeguard the good name and values of NACCC

Compliance

- To ensure that NACCC complies with all legal and regulatory requirements
- To ensure that key risks to NACCC are identified and effectively managed and that professional advice is sought and considered where appropriate

Prudent management of assets

- To ensure the financial stability of NACCC through creation of an effective fundraising strategy
- To ensure the proper management of the charity's assets both physical and intellectual; and sound financial management

Good governance

- To comply at all times with the Trustee Board Code of Conduct and other Trustee policies
- To uphold the principles and practice of good governance
- To participate in Trustee development and training as appropriate
- To prepare for and attend Trustee Board meetings regularly and contribute to discussion and collective decision making
- To use any particular personal knowledge, skills and experience to help the Board of Trustees to further the objects of the charity

Duties for PR and Strategic Communications specialist trustee

- To provide guidance and support to develop an innovative and integrated communications strategy to improve the reputation and awareness of NACCC across media, journalists, editors, bloggers, government, politicians, opinion formers, NGOs, family justice sector and contact centre users and future users.
- Provide strong leadership within the Board to develop an integrated communications strategy and develop a strong social media presence for NACCC.
- Support thinking around fundraising and communications strategy.
- Represent NACCC at a leadership level both externally and internally, advising on key communications issues.

NACCC

TRUSTEE PERSON SPECIFICATION

- Experience as a trustee in a similar size or larger organisation, together with implementation of best practice in corporate governance.

Code of Conduct for Trustees

Trustee Code of Conduct

Introduction

At NACCC, the Trustee Board, having regard to our core values and examples of best practice within the sector have created this code to set out a framework in which its trustees and governing body will operate.

We use our values to describe the way we want to be, and how we want to be seen by everyone who comes into contact with us.

We believe in providing care for people who come to us. We will accept them as individuals and respect their beliefs, needs and wishes.

We aim to provide a happy environment in which to encourage recovery and progression.

Accountability

Everything NACCC does will be able to stand the test of scrutiny by the public, the media, charity regulators, members, stakeholders, funders, Parliament and the courts.

Integrity and honesty

These will be the hallmarks of all conduct when dealing with colleagues within NACCC and equally when dealing with individuals and institutions outside it.

Transparency

NACCC strives to maintain an atmosphere of openness throughout the organisation to promote confidence of the public, stakeholders, staff, charity regulators and Parliament.

Additionally, I agree to the following points:

Law, mission, policies

- I will not break charity law or go against charity regulations in any aspect of my role of trustee.
- I will support the mission and consider myself its guardian.
- I will abide by organisational policies.

Conflicts of interest

- I will always strive to act in the best interests of the organisation.
- I will declare any conflict of interest, or any circumstance that might be viewed by others as a conflict of interest, as soon as it arises.
- I will submit to the judgment of the board and do as it requires regarding potential conflicts of interest.

Person to person

- I will not break charity law, go against charity regulations or act in disregard of organisational policies in my relationships with fellow trustees, staff, volunteers, members, service recipients, contractors or anyone I come into contact with in my role as trustee.
- I will strive to establish respectful, collegial and courteous relationships with all I come into contact with in my role as trustee.

Protecting the organisation's reputation

- I will not speak as a trustee of this organisation to the media or in a public forum without the prior knowledge and approval of the Chief Executive or Chair.
- When prior consent has not been obtained, I will inform the Chair or Chief Executive at once when I have spoken as a trustee of this organisation to the media or in a public forum.
- When I am speaking as a trustee of this organisation, my comments will reflect current organisational policy even when these do not agree with my personal views.
- When speaking as a private citizen I will strive to uphold the reputation of the organisation and those who work in it.
- I will respect organisational, board and individual confidentiality.
- I will take an active interest in the organisation's public image, noting news articles, books, television programmes and the like about the organisation, about similar organisations or about important issues for the organisation.

Personal gain

- I will not personally gain materially or financially from my role as trustee, nor will I permit others to do so as a result of my actions or negligence.
- I will document expenses and seek reimbursement according to procedure.
- I will not accept gifts or hospitality without prior consent of the Chair.
- I will use organisational resources responsibly, when authorised, in accordance with procedure.

In the boardroom

- I will strive to embody the principles of leadership in all my actions and live up to the trust placed in me by (organisation).
- I will abide by board governance procedures and practices.
- I will strive to attend all board meetings, giving apologies ahead of time to the Chair if unable to attend.
- I will study the agenda and other information sent me in good time prior to the meeting and be prepared to debate and vote on agenda items during the meeting.
- I will honour the authority of the Chair and respect his or her role as meeting leader.
- I will engage in debate and voting in meetings according to procedure, maintaining a respectful attitude toward the opinions of others while making my voice heard.
- I will accept a majority board vote on an issue as decisive and final.
- I will maintain confidentiality about what goes on in the boardroom unless authorised by the Chair or board to speak of it.
- I will work to avoid conflict in the boardroom and seek external support to do this when necessary.

Enhancing governance

- I will participate in induction, training and development activities for trustees.
- I will continually seek ways to improve board governance practice.
- I will strive to identify good candidates for trusteeship and appoint new trustees on the basis of merit.
- I will support the Chair in his/her efforts to improve his/her leadership skills.
- I will support the Chief Executive in his/her executive role and, with my fellow board members, seek development opportunities for him/her.

Leaving the board

- I understand that substantial breach of any part of this code may result in my removal from the trustee board.
- Should I resign from the board I will inform the Chair in advance in writing, stating my reasons for resigning. Additionally, I will participate in an exit interview.
